NILESHWAR NATIONAL EXTENSION AREA.

*Qn.No.3426: SRI M. NARAYANAN NAMBIAR:

Will the Hon. the Minister for Agriculture be pleased to state:

(a) whether an advisory council has been constituted for the Nileshwar National Extension area in South Kanara; and

(b) if not why?

THE HON. SRI M. BHAKTAVATSALAM:

(a) Yes, Sir.

(b) Does not arise.

SRI M.NARAYANAN NAMBIAR: May I know, Sir, why there was considerable delay to constitute the council?

THE HON.SRI M.BHAKTAVATSALAM: Sir, the block was launched in October 1955. Non-officials had to be selected by the Government and that was done on 12.1.1956. The Collector has since constituted the Council and he will be holding the first meeting of the Council shortly.

SRI P.K.GOPALAKRISHNAN: May I know, Sir, whether among the non-officials members, Government have not taken Sri M.G.Kamath a District Board Member elected from the firka and, if so, the the reason therefor?

THE HON.SRI M.BHAKTAVATSALAM: Government do not invariably select a particular District Board Member as one of the non-official members of this advisory council.

SRI M.NARAYANA NAMBIAR: May I know, Sir, the personnel of this advisory council?

THE HON.SRI M.BHAKTAVATSALAM: Besides the officers and all the M.L.As. representing the area, four non-official members have been selected. But, I do not have information with regard to* their names.

SRI V.BALAKRISHNAN: How many of the non-officials belong to the Congress and non-Congress Party?

THE HON.SRI M.BHAKTAVATSALAM: Government do not look into Party affiliations of the members that are selected.

SRI P.K.GOPALAKRISHNAN: As a matter of fact, the non-officials selected were according to Party affiliations. The Govt. refused to take in the advisory council the Communist member representing the firka who was selected by people with overwhelming majority against the combined efforts of Congress and the P.S.P. Will the Government reconsider their decision and include him also in the council?

THE HON.SRI M.BHAKTAVATSALAM: I do not know how that Communist member was selected to the District Board. But, I have already stated that Government do not invariably take particular District Board Members. Government do select four non-official representing various interests and the Communists are not ruled out in the Constitution of this advisory council.

SRI M.PALANIYANDI: Tamil. மந்த மாதிரிக் கமிட்டிகளில் உத்தியோகப் பற்றற்ற மெம்பர்களை நியமிக்கும்போது கம்யூனிஸ்டுகளை யெல்லாம் சேர்க்கப்படாதென்று மட்டும் நியமிப்பதற்கு அரசாங்கம் முன்வருமா?

THE HON.SRI M.BHAKTAVATSALAM: Tamil. அவர்களை கட்டாயமாய் அதையும் சேர்த்துத் தான் நியமிக்கிறார்கள்.

Dr.K.B.Menon: I wonder what evidence the Member concerned has to say that it is due to the combined efforts of the Congress and the P.S.P. that the Communist member was not taken in as a member of this advisory council?

CNo 222 91/56.

16.3.56 S.S.

THE HON.SRI M.BHAKTAVATSALAM: That is for the hon.member to answer.

SRI M.NARAYANAN NAMBIAR: Is it not a fact, Sir, that there were no Congress or P.S.P.candidates there?

THE HON.SRI M.BHAKTAVATSALAM: Perhaps it is so, Sir. I have no information. The hon.member's information must be correct.
